Frauds Beat Philadelphia, Says Captain Cook

BUSS COX, MAN, AS HE WAS

His Beginnings Despotic Rule and Social Dictatorship Described by Promirent Ohio Man.

"President Roosevelt's moral support of Mayor Weaver, in permitting Major Gillette to inspect and expose the mon strous frauds in the building of the Philadelphia filtration plant, needs repetition in Cincinnati," said Capt. Cassilly Cook at the New Willard last night. Captain Cook was president of the Ohio State board of pardons, and later as a member of Cincinnati's park board, in unearthing official corruption there
